

MEYER ♦ DARRAGH

BUCKLER, BEBENEK & ECK, PLLC

www.mdbbe.com

For Immediate Release

June 3, 2009

Contact: Michelle M. Ellwood, Administrative/Marketing Assistant mellwood@mdbbe.com

MEYER DARRAGH ATTORNEYS LISTED IN 2009 PENNSYLVANIA SUPER LAWYERS

Pittsburgh, PA — Attorney Marie Milie Jones, partner in the law firm of Meyer, Darragh, Buckler, Bebenek & Eck, a Professional Limited Liability Company, and Joseph E. Vogrin, III, of counsel with the firm, have been listed in Pennsylvania Super Lawyers for 2009. Ms. Jones has been listed in Super Lawyers list since 2004, and Mr. Vogrin since 2006.

Law & Politics magazine, which publishes Pennsylvania Super Lawyers, utilizes a selection process to decide upon the lawyers who will receive the distinction of “Super Lawyers:” a statewide nomination process, peer review by practice area, and independent research on nominated candidates. The points from each step are added up and the list is cut off at the top five percent.

Born and raised in Greensburg, Ms. Jones is a cum laude graduate of Duquesne University and its law school. A defense trial attorney who represents companies in employment matters and other clients in commercial disputes, Ms. Jones has also achieved prominence for her representation of counties and local governments sued by those who allege police abuse, excessive force, and other violations of constitutional rights. At age 35, she became managing attorney for Meyer Darragh -- the youngest female to head up a major law firm in Pittsburgh’s history.

As a municipal law attorney, Joseph E. Vogrin, III, served as solicitor for a number of governmental bodies. He was also one of the Pittsburgh area’s better known criminal defense motor vehicle lawyers, defending citizens accused of motor vehicle violations. Joe has also taught criminal law to over 3,500 police officers, including cadets at the Allegheny County Police Academy and the City of Pittsburgh Police Academy, teaching Search and Seizure, Arrest, Crimes Code, and Use of Deadly Force. Mr. Vogrin is a graduate of Duquesne University and its law school. He is now the Solicitor for the Township of Shaler.

Established in 1913, Meyer Darragh is a mid-sized Pennsylvania law firm serving a broad spectrum of corporate, business, professional, governmental and individual clients on a local, state, regional and national basis.