

MEYER ♦ DARRAGH

BUCKLER, BEBENEK & ECK, PLLC

For Immediate Release

September 29, 2011

Contact: Michelle M. Ellwood, Marketing Assistant
mellwood@mdbbe.com

MEYER DARRAGH WELCOMES
EDWARD G. BRANDENSTEIN AND
LEXINGTON V. WOLFF

Pittsburgh, PA -- Meyer Darragh Buckler Bebenek & Eck, PLLC, a Pittsburgh-based law firm with an additional fully-staffed office in Greensburg, is pleased to announce that attorney Edward G. Brandenstein has joined the firm. In addition, Lexington V. Wolff has returned to the firm in a law clerk capacity while awaiting the results of her Bar examination.

Joining the Meyer Darragh Pittsburgh office, Mr. Brandenstein will concentrate his practice primarily in defense of transportation, products liability and premises liability matters. Mr. Brandenstein is a 1991 graduate of Penn State University with a B.A. in political science, and he earned his law degree from Widener University School of Law in 1994 where he was awarded membership in the Trial Advocacy Honor Society. He began practicing law in 1994, and is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, the District of Columbia, and Maryland.

Lexington Wolff has been a valuable asset to Meyer Darragh's Pittsburgh legal team as a law clerk since 2010. A 2008 graduate of Duquesne University with a major in journalism, and a 2011 graduate of Duquesne University School of Law, Ms. Wolff continues to contribute her talent and ability, and garner valuable experience, assisting the firm's attorneys in a wide variety of matters. Ms. Wolff presently plans to focus her civil litigation practice in insurance and product liability defense, toxic tort, and criminal defense work.

Established in 1913, Meyer Darragh is a mid-sized Pennsylvania law firm serving a broad spectrum of corporate, business, professional, governmental and individual clients on a local, state, regional and national basis.