MEYER DARRAGH ATTORNEY REAPPOINTED TO PENNSYLVANIA LAWYERS FUND FOR CLIENT
SECURITY AND REDESIGNATED AS VICE-PRESIDENT

Eric N. Anderson, a partner and executive committee member with the law firm of Meyer, Darragh, Buckler, Bebenek & Eck, P.L.L.C., has again been appointed by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania to serve on the Pennsylvania Lawyers Fund for Client Security Board for a term to expire April 1, 2013. Mr. Anderson has also again been designated by the Supreme Court as the Board's Vice-President.

The Fund was created in 1992 for the purpose of providing reimbursement to individuals whose lawyers have misappropriated the funds of their clients, and Mr. Anderson was first appointed to The Fund's Board in 2007. The Board is comprised of seven members, all of whom are appointed by the Supreme Court and serve without compensation.

"I consider it both an honor and a pleasure to be a member of the Board, and I look forward to continuing to serve as the vice-president," said Mr. Anderson.

A graduate of Colgate University and the University of Pittsburgh Law School, Mr. Anderson has developed a reputation as an outstanding trial attorney, representing corporate and organization clients in aviation, banking, commercial litigation, insurance, personal injury, products liability, and transportation. He is a member of the Academy of Trial Lawyers of Allegheny County. In addition, Mr. Anderson continues his life-long commitment to legal representation for all citizens with his membership in the Neighborhood Legal Services Association through which he provides pro bono legal work to plaintiffs in Protection from Abuse hearings.

Established in 1913, Meyer Darragh is a mid-sized Pennsylvania law firm serving a broad spectrum of corporate, business, professional, governmental and individual clients on a local, state, regional and national basis.
