MEYER DARRAGH WELCOMES
ATTORNEY SARAH R. WEISSMAN

Pittsburgh, PA -- Meyer Darragh Buckler Bebenek & Eck, PLLC, a Pittsburgh-based law firm with an additional fully-staffed office in Greensburg, is pleased to announce that attorney Sarah R. Weissman has joined the firm.

The firm's newest associate, Ms. Weissman is a 2009 magna cum laude graduate of the Duquesne University's School of Law. Recently admitted to the bar in Pennsylvania, Ms. Weissman begins practicing law with Meyer Darragh after working as a law clerk with the firm since June 2008. Ms. Weissman is a past recipient of the Honorable Carol Los Mansmann Scholarship from the Allegheny County Bar Foundation. She was selected by her peers and the faculty at the law school as the Distinguished Female Law Graduate from the class of 2009, an award given by the National Association of Women Lawyers. She earned her bachelor of arts in media communications from the University of Pittsburgh, graduating cum laude in 2005.

"We are genuinely pleased to have a young lawyer with Sarah's talent and ambition join our team of attorneys," noted Dean Passodelis, Chairman of the firm's Executive Committee. "Her addition to the firm can only strengthen and enhance the services we provide as we grow to meet the needs of our clients."

At Meyer Darragh, Ms. Weissman will focus her practice in general, civil litigation with an emphasis on civil rights litigation, municipal law, workers' compensation, insurance litigation and employment, and construction law.

Established in 1913, Meyer Darragh is a mid-sized Pennsylvania law firm serving a broad spectrum of corporate, business, professional, governmental and individual clients on a local, state, regional and national basis.
